

Articles & Databases

Databases are discreet, managed, electronic collections. Some databases hold journal articles or books and some are subject-specific. You can find these library materials by selecting the “Articles and Databases” icon  on the library’s webpage.

Academic Journals

Academic Search Complete

The library’s journal article database.

ProQuest Research Library

The other large periodical database.

A – Z Journals

See if we have a particular journal.

Books

OneSearch

WCC Library catalog of books...and more.

EBSCO eBook Collection

Large collection of academic eBooks.

General Reference

Credo Reference

Encyclopedias, dictionaries, atlases.

Britannica Academic

Comprehensive information by experts.

Biography Reference Center

Comprehensive collection of biographies.

Browse by topic

Opposing Viewpoints

Pro/Con articles, statistics, periodicals.

Points of View Reference Center

Research multiple sides of current issues.

SIRS Discoverer

An interdisciplinary topical research tool.

News & Current Events

New York Times

Read anywhere; create an account.

U. S. Newsstream

Newspapers and news sites.

Chronicle of Higher Education

News for college staff and students.

Media

Films on Demand

ARTstore

Naxos Music Library

Streaming videos on educational topics.

Images of art, architecture, photography.

Streaming audio, focus on world music.

STEM

ITPro™

Salem: Science

General Science full-text

Professional and technical CS books.

References in science, energy, and math.

Covers subjects in the sciences.

Healthcare & Medicine

OVID Nursing

CINAHL with Full Text

Social Work Reference Center

Articles from over sixty nursing journals.

Articles on nursing and health topics.

Social work & mental health information.

Business and Law

Business Source Premier

Legal Collection

Legal Information Reference

Business and trade journals.

Scholarly law journals and case studies.

Legal information for consumers.

Literature

Gale Literary Sources

MLA International Bibliography

ProQuest Learning: Literature

Literary criticism, author biographies.

Abstracts on languages and literature.

Resources for studying literature.

Social Sciences

World History in Context

History Study Center

Articles, primary sources, and books.

Primary and secondary sources

This is a partial list of the databases that WCC Library subscribes to.

When in doubt about which database to search, ask a librarian.